C.P.R. TO SPEND 30 MILLIONS

That for Edmonton High Level Bridge
Included in the Year's Appropriation

SOME SURPRISES IN STORE

Moosejaw-Edmonton Branch will be Pushed on—Mr. Whyte Goes to Meet
Sir Thomas Shaughnessy

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—That the Canadian Pacific is looking forward to a very busy summer in 1910 is evident and indicated by a statement made by General Manager Bury in Vancouver. He stated that the large sum of $30,000,000 would be expended in Western Canada this year. This total would include betterments and improvements and great interest is manifested to learn in what parts of the country the corporation will be at work.

W. Whyte, second vice-president of the C.P.R., is on the way to Montreal where he will meet Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. Mr. Whyte has with him the entire list of improvements which were prepared by General Supt. Instead of the Pacific Division; General Supt. Price of the Western Division, and General Supt. Arundel of the Central Division. It is stated that the demands of the Western Division are the largest, those of the Central Division second and those of the Pacific Division third. One of the interesting features of the betterments of the system of the company is stated to be the continuing of the double-tracking which now extends from the head of the lakes to the cities far to the west. Work will also probably be done this year on the line from Outlook to Custer, where there remains a gap of 25 miles, which will connect Moose Jaw with Edmonton direct. There has been a great rush into this country during the past season and many hundreds of settlers are awaiting the advent of transportation facilities.

At Edmonton the company will erect their high level bridge at a cost of a million and this sum will be included in the appropriations of this year. From such information as could be secured at local offices today in the absence of Mr. Whyte it appears that the C.P.R. may have surprises in store for the west in the matter of construction of new lines and the announcement from Mr. Bury that the sum of $30,000,000 was to be appropriated this year seems to confirm this statement.

NOTHING CAN STOP CANADA

Most Optimistic References to the Dominion by Leading Englishmen at London Banquet

London, Feb. 2.—A. W. Smithers, chairman of the G. T. P., presiding at a Canadian Club banquet, declared that Canada is not over-estimated. He advocated a state system of emigration. Sir E. Sheffer remarked that Canada was going to be the most remarkable development in modern history. Nothing could stop it. Britain was ready to supply the capital. Sir William Whyte said the character of Canada's warm hearted, optimistic and grand citizens alone assured her future.

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE

The Possibility of a Short Route to the Grande Prairie Country will be Definitely Known

FROM ALL OVER PROVINCE

A well attended meeting of those interested in the settlement of the Peace River District was held last night at the Y.M.C.A.
H. B. Round, who occupied the chair, said that the Peace River country was a command to some people, but that with regard to its possibilities, he knew, that there could be no possible doubt, either from an agricultural point of view, or from a commercial standpoint. The chairman said that $100,000 worth of wheat had been grown there last year.
"In a few years," he said, "there will be a city on Grand Prairie as large as Edmonton."

After some discussion with regard to the best routes, in which Messrs. P. Gunn, M.P.P., C. F. W. Rochford, F.R.G.S., Kinpe, Moncton, Cole, J. Smith, T. A. Brick, and others took part, it was decided to form a committee to investigate a short route to the Peace River district, and the following gentlemen were elected:

Messrs. H. B. Round, Geo. Garnet, Joe Boyd, T. A. Brick, F. Brick, Moncton, Sutherland and J. Smith.

W. Piche, secretary of the Peace River committee, asked those present to put their signature to a petition which was to be sent to the Minister of the Interior, asking that a road be made to the Peace River district.

At the close of the meeting, a vote of thanks was passed to the chairman on the motion of Mr. P. Gunn, M.P.P.

FAIR GRANTS NOT REDUCED

Government Encourages Agricultural Fairs—Edmonton's Fair Dates Being Set

The Edmonton delegates to the Alberta Fairs convention which opened this morning in Mechanics' Hall asked that the dates for this year's fair be set for August 23, 24, 25 and 26th, but that next year the dates revert to June 29, 30, and July 1 and 2. Requests for dates were received from all the delegates present and immediately after a committee was appointed to make a draft of the fair dates. Calgary is looking for provincial fair dates during the first week of July. The convention opened with President A. E. Humphries of Lethbridge in the chair and Premier Rutherford and Hon. Duncan Marshall on the platform.

In his remarks to the convention the Premier stated his satisfaction at the growth of the agricultural fairs throughout the province. He suggested that it would be a mistake to form too many associations as it eventually means decreasing the government grant to each.

Hon. Duncan Marshall spoke of the quality of agricultural fairs, saying that they ought to be made sufficiently interesting without the introduction of side-shows which detracted from their educational value. He assured the convention that the government grant would not be reduced this year. As to the exhibits he urged that attention be given to the live stock exhibits as it was necessary to keep the live stock industry ever to the fore on Alberta farms. Live stock was the backbone of agriculture and nothing should be neglected that would tend to improve the quality.

The convention is depicting this afternoon to a discussion on how the fairs of the province may be improved. An interesting address along this line will be given by W. F. Stephens of Quebec, secretary of the Ayrshire Cattle Breeders' Association.

Manager Harrison of the Edmonton Exhibition informed The Capital that the local association has arranged 50 seats at the Empire this evening by way of offering some entertainment to the guests of the city.

MORAL REFORM CONVENTION

Opens its Sessions at First Baptist Church With Large Number of Delegates

FROM ALL OVER PROVINCE

Changes in the Liquor Law Which the Executive Recommends the League to Ask for Over one hundred delegates from all points of the province assembled in the First Baptist Church this morning for the opening session of the 4th annual convention of the Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League. President W. G. Hunt, of Calgary, called the convention to order at ten o'clock.

The business of the morning was the address of the president and the striking of various committees through which all matters for discussion will come before the convention. An early adjournment was made to enable the delegates to meet and arrange reports to be submitted to the meeting this afternoon at two o'clock.

The secretary, Rev. Geo. Webber, of Okotoks, will give the annual report of the League at this evening's session.

A strong temperance address will be heard in the First Baptist Church this evening from Rev. Jos. Oliver, of Regina, who is one of the principal speakers at the convention.

The meeting this morning received the recommendation of the executive committee, which in addition to the recommendations of individual delegates will crystallize the work which the convention will seek to effect.

Resolutions of Executive Committee

The recommendations are as follows:

That the annual convention petition the Alberta Government for a local option law which will give the right to any municipality to outlaw the traffic in intoxicating liquors, on the majority vote of the resident electors who vote on such question, the abrogation of the $100 deposit in connection therewith, and the taking of this vote at the time of the municipal elections.

Such amendment to the liquor license ordinance making the minimum fine for illegal sale of liquor $200 instead of $50 and imprisonment without option of a fine for second conviction.

The closing of bars and liquor shops on Christmas Day, Good Friday and Thanksgiving Day.

That the licensed bar be separated entirely from the hotel or place of accommodation.

Amendment to the liquor license ordinance that will prohibit licensees or anyone directly interested in the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors in any wide holding positions on the municipal councils of the province.

The prohibition of pool tables and other forms of amusement on premises where there is the licensed bar-room.

MORE LIVES SNUFFED OUT

By Terrific Explosion in Browder Mine Near Drakesboro, Kentucky

NO SIGN OF LIFE IS FOUND

By those who have been pushing forward the work of rescue—Twenty-five recovered

Drakesboro, Ky., Feb. 2.—Notwithstanding the heroic efforts of rescuers, it may be many hours before Browder mine, near this city, yields up the bodies of the last men whose lives were snuffed out in the explosion yesterday. Early today 23 bodies had been recovered. Among those killed was Matt Allen, a police judge of Drakesboro, who left a wife and six children. Of one hundred men in the mine when the disaster took place, it is now practically certain that more than a third have perished. Except for 25 miners who were working near the shaft in the east end, and who, many of them mangled, were brought to the surface within a few minutes after the explosion, the relief workers have not found a sign of life. Repeated attempts yesterday afternoon to penetrate the entrance were frustrated by stifling clouds and it was only after hours, during which the work of the fumes that it was possible to begin the rescue work.

Throughout the night each 17½ of the cage brought about 17½ of the cage of relief about the shaft it has been impossible to ascertain the number of men who escaped and the number of dead cannot be accurately stated.

DISCREPANCY IN THE BOOKS

Rumors Regarding Those of Woodmen of the World are Afloat in London

London, Ont., Feb. 2.—Sensational rumors are afloat in regard to an alleged mix-up in the books of the Woodmen of the World, which are said to show a discrepancy. The books are being examined preparatory to the making of a statement to the Grand Encampment and to the government. The auditors of the society through the books and discovered, it is claimed, that Mr. W. C. Fitzgerald, high secretary, was about $10,000 out in his accounts. He was not satisfied with the result and a firm of independent auditors was called in. They reported a discrepancy of $23,000. Fitzgerald's friends strongly assert that there is nothing wrong in the transaction whatever, that it is merely a mistake in bookkeeping and that everything will be straightened out satisfactorily.

THE PRINTERS OF EDMONTON

Good Feeling That Prevails in the Trade Clearly Emphasized Last Night

AT AN ENJOYABLE BANQUET

When Typos had as their guests three Members of Alberta Government and Employing Printers of City

The annual banquet of Edmonton Typographical Union, No. 664, was held last evening in the Hotel Cecil, with an attendance of about 65. As guests the typos had, in addition to almost all the employing printers, several members of the Alberta government, including Hon. C. W. Cross, Hon. Duncan Marshall, and Hon. W. A. Buchanan; and Dan McGillicuddy, editor and proprietor of the Calgary News.

An elaborate menu was partaken of provided by Mine Host Belanger, the service and viands being of the very best.

W. McAdams was chairman. In a very brief address of welcome to the visitors he emphasized the fact that amicable relations must exist between the employers and employees in order to produce the best results, and said the gathering present should be proof enough that this happy state of affairs existed in Edmonton in its truest sense. He read a telegram from Calgary, signed by R. J. Brown, president of the typos of that city, conveying the felicitations of that union, and wishing Edmonton local prosperity in coming years.

Hon. W. A. Buchanan, of Lethbridge, in speaking to the toast of "Alberta," said that although not a printer himself he considered it an honor to be present at such an array of members of the craft preservative. He had lately returned from the coast where a rather severe winter and stormy weather prevails, and contrasted this with the fine Alberta weather. He said in Alberta there was as good a class of newspapers as in any of the newer provinces or states, which speaks well for the high standard of the newspapermen and printers of this province. He, however, to use a printer's term, would make his "short take" so the "jig would be up" soon.

"The Typographical Union—Local" was spoken to by Vice-President T. E. Rathford of 664. He said the local union had started four years ago with but very few members, and today had 52. He said among those were very many fine high-class tradesmen from the east, and some are now employing printers.

Joseph Adair, the spokesman of the evening for No. 664, in responding to the other half of the above toast "the International," said that the fellowship that existed between the employer and employee of the craft in Edmonton needed no stronger proof than the gathering here tonight. He traced broadly the history of the trades union movement from its inception in

LIBERALS ONE TO THE GOOD

They Will Have 274 Seats to 273 Held by the Unionists in New House

DEATH OF SIR GEO. DRUMMOND

President of Bank of Montreal, C. P. R. Director and Member of the Senate

London, Feb. 1.—The Liberals won the election at Wicksburgs, which was held yesterday from the Unionists, R. Munro defeating Sir A. Bigg, who had a 90 majority in 1906, so they will have just one more member in the new parliament than the Tories, the respective representation being Liberals, 274; Unionists, 273.

The return of two O'Brienites for the north division and west division respectively of Cork county today completed the Irish elections. Out of 82 Nationalists in the House, a dozen of them are followers of Wm. O'Brien.

Montreal, Feb. 2.—Sir George Drummond died this morning. He had been ill for some weeks.

Sir George Drummond has for many years been a leading figure in the financial life of the Dominion. He has been a member of the directorate of the Bank of Montreal for more than a generation and of later years its president. He was a director of the C. P. R., president of the Canada Sugar Refining Co. and interested in many large industrial enterprises. He was appointed to the Senate under the administration of Sir John A. Macdonald, being latterly chairman of the committee on banking and commerce. He was born in Edinburgh in 1859.

Bridge Plans Prepared

The council was notified that J. H. Smith, bridge engineer, has prepared plans for two bridges to be constructed across the ravine in the west end, rendered necessary by the extension of Athabasca avenue. The city engineer wished the council to know that the plans were being approved.

DEMANDS OF THE FIREMEN

For Wage Increase has been Refused by Sixty Railroads Acting Together

New York, Feb. 2.—Sixty railroads in the country have notified the representatives of 32,000 firemen of the rejection of their demands for a 20 to 25 per cent. wage increase and other concessions. The news of the rejection was contained in a private despatch from Chicago today. The roads express a willingness to arbitrate the question of wages but flatly refused other demands.

Women Want Lash Used.

Toronto, Feb. 2.—In view of the serious and revolting crimes recently perpetrated in the vicinity of Toronto, the District W.C.T.U. has adopted a resolution calling the attention of the minister of justice to the appalling increase in the number of crimes which receive in too many cases punishment totally inadequate to the offence, and asking why the use of the lash is not resorted to as a measure of restraint.

TO DISCUSS CITY BYLAWS

Special Meeting Called of City Council for Monday Evening in Council Chamber

GREAT DESPATCH OF BUSINESS

Council hurried Business Through Last Evening and Adjourned Before Ten o'Clock—Little of Importance

All business before the council last evening was dealt with summarily and the bare quorum of councillors with acting Mayor Armstrong rose from their seats shortly before ten o'clock. The deliberations opened with a supplication from E. B. Williams. He called the attention of the council to the dismissal of Mr. Oakeshott, by Supt. McLean on Thursday from the Waterworks department without sufficient cause. Mr. Oakeshott had to keep an important engagement and was off duty for a short period without asking his superior officer. On his return he was summarily dismissed and was now without a job.

Ald. Hyndman wished the superintendent to bring in a detailed report as to why Oakeshott was dismissed, but the council refused to take action in the matter.

A. G. Harrison wrote to the council requesting that all streets lying between the G. T. P. tracks and the exhibition park be brushed out. The matter was referred to the commissioners and the city engineer for a report.

Temporary permission was given the G. T. P. to run the waste water after cleaning the railroad engines into the Namayaw avenue ditch. It was thought that the water might be dirty but not injurious to health. In six months' time sewage in that part of the city would remove any necessity for continuing the request.

Bridge Plans Prepared

The council was notified that J. H. Smith, bridge engineer, has prepared plans for two bridges to be constructed across the ravine in the west end, rendered necessary by the extension of Athabasca avenue. The city engineer wished the council to know that the plans were being approved.

Ald. Miller raised the question of revision of the building bylaw by drawing the attention of the council to the fact that the present bylaw made no provision for steel construction in the city. The city solicitor said that it had been suggested when the bylaw was first framed that the builders exchange, architects and insurance men get together to discuss the clauses of the bylaw. The matter was referred to the public works committee to act in conjunction with representatives of associations interested in framing a suitable building bylaw. The question was raised by the request of the Canada Permanent Co. for areas in the lanes during the construction of their new block which was granted subject to the approval of the building inspector.

Cigar License Withheld

That Eugene F. Van Vleet is "a very, very, very, very bad man" and as such is not entitled to a cigar and cigarette license for this year along with his partner Bradley, was the substance of a report to the council from Chief of Police Lancy. The granting

GamesJEFF WILL
NOW PROCEEDAfter a Hunting Trip, a Vaudeville
Tour and a Few Other Matters,
Will Prepare for the Battle

New York, Jan. 30.—Several friends of James J. Jeffries have received word from him that he would arrive in Los Angeles on February 16, and would then begin a long hunting trip. The big pugilist will then have more than four months to spend before the day rolls around for his battle with Johnson.

Jeffries has made nearly $60,000 clear out of his present engagement, which was planned last November by a Chicago man, while his profits last year from his vaudeville exhibitions were nearly as much.

As soon as he reaches his Los Angeles home he intends to find out definitely just what nature has left him in physique, so that he can determine how long and how strenuously he must train himself for the fight. Johnson, it is conceded, is more anxious about his wind than his physical strength.

In order to test his wind Jeffries will adopt various methods. Road runs are found convincing, but hill climbing is even better. The big fellow says he intends to go into the mountains, tramping on foot all the way, and will climb many hundred feet every day for nearly a month. Jeff's weight will be an important point to be considered. In spite of reports to the contrary, he weighs more than 240 pounds at the present time.

DON'T MISS
THE MEETINGAthletic Clubs of the City Meet a Committee From the Exhibition Board This Evening

The big meeting of the athletic club representatives will be held in the Y. M. C. A. this evening, with J. W. Ward presiding. Every amateur club in the city is earnestly requested to have a delegate present as the business to be discussed is of vital importance to every athlete in Edmonton.

President A. B. Campbell, Manager A. G. Harrison and Mr. West, will tell what the exhibition board propose to do in regard to the new athletic grounds, to be laid out in the east end park. It is the intention of the exhibition directors to expend between two and three thousand dollars on this project, making permanent grounds. This will do away with the scurrying around that has taken place in the past, just before a game. The grounds were always a debatable question.

The city will be asked to extend the car line to the field and there is no doubt they will comply with the request as it will prove a bare revenue producer.

The meeting will commence at 8 p. m. sharp in the Y. M. C. A. building.

HE BEGS
TO REPORTManager Chuck Tyner Reports on the Recent Battle Between Brantford and Galt Pros

Manager Chuck Tyner, of the Brantford team, evidently anticipated a colored report of the doings at Galt last week, for he handled out the following story of the game:

"The game was tough—dierce. I hit at somebody who came in on my goal. Layden didn't rule me off, but merely faced the puck and play continued. Fieze Chaston came down the ice and told Referee Layden to rule me off for a minute. The referee acted on the advice and told me to go to the penalty box. I refused, and Charlton and Buck Irving called the Galt team from the ice. It was a rough game. Doherty got hit on the knee in the first half and was laid out. He came back in the second half and hit Marks, of Brantford, so hard that he broke a bone in Jack's leg, and he is out of the game for the season. We had to carry him to the car. Doherty got ten minutes on the fence.

"Cap McDonald knocked Sanford over the head and knocked him out. Cooper got a nasty crack on the head with the puck. There were two or three fights. I got mobbed after leaving the rink. I would not be surprised to see the game between Galt and Brantford teams played off at Toronto or some other neutral rink.

Hal Chase, Hans Wagner, Harry Lord, and Tris Speaker will figure in Christy Mathewson's first book under the names Hal Case, Hagner, Harry Laird and Tris Tarkington.

WHO SAID
HE WASN'TThe People of Calgary Claim we did not Treat Dick Andrews
With Due Respect

The Calgary Herald heads the following article with the caption "Dick Andrews is all right."

"The people of Edmonton must have got in wrong when they judged Dick Andrews to be an unfair official. Dick has been in Calgary for a long time now, and during that time has made a very great number of friends who know him as a square sportsman. All during this season in local senior hockey the Calgary fans have had an opportunity to judge Dick's style of officiating, and never yet have we heard a murmur against him. In every game in which he has acted in Calgary he showed us a very fair and impartial man who had a very good eye, a good judgment, and the nerve to back up his impressions. Every team in the city is well satisfied with his rulings whether they were against them or not, and the stories from Edmonton of his alleged unfairness have caused considerable indignation against the origin of the stories against him.

"It will take a lot more than a press dispatch to convince the friends of Dick in this city that he was otherwise than fair."

A POPULAR
CLERGYMANA Calgary Paper Pays a Well-deserved Tribute to Rev. Robt.
Pearson of Edmonton

The last issue of the Optimist, a bright weekly printed in Calgary, contains an eloquent appreciation of Rev. Robt. Pearson, of this city. Mr. Pearson has not been very long here, but during his short stay has endeared himself to every person with whom he has come in contact. The Optimist says:

"Rev. Robert Pearson and Harry P. Porter agree on many subjects, and one of them is the subject of sport. Mr. Pearson is perhaps the most popular young clergyman in the west. His power over the younger generation is a great one and a large amount of it is due to his honest love of sports and fair play. Mr. Pearson when at college played football and shone, played basketball and scintillated, played hockey, curled, perhaps boxed, and surely played very well indeed, possessing a mighty physique, and a game sport of never-say-die grit. There was nothing mollified about 'Bob' Pearson in these struggles, and he came west to preach and live as he believed. He remained in sports, pitched, curled, and took part in all times of athletics. And his power for good drew as he remained, for everyone knew him as a clean man who was a Christian, and who yet could play the lusty games of lusty men in a manner to make the lustiest envious.

Last Sunday Mr. J. E. Ryan, chaplain of the Alberta branch of the Royal Caledonia Curling Club, preached the sermon to curlers in the Methodist Church before fifteen hundred listeners. He explained his stand on the subject of athletics, and he explained it lucidly and plainly."

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 1.—Another star has arisen in the baseball firmament. "Ty" Cobb, Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tynd Cobb at the home of Mrs. Cobb's parents here last night. Bunches of congratulations poured in today on the American League champion hitter.

The spring series between the Quakers and the Athletics of Philadelphia begins on April 1. It will be a fine day for the pitchers to fool the batsmen.

TRIMBLE DEFEATS SAVAGE

Visiting Curlers are Delighted with the Bonspiel and the Rinks and Local Ships are Holding Their Own with the Visitors—Fraser Doing Very Well

The Edmonton bonspiel is now onto its second day and the curlers are getting into their stride. They all speak in glowing terms of the fine rinks in the Twin Cities and are unanimous in saying that the Edmonton weather man is of a kinder disposition than his Calgary confrere. The local rinks are holding up their end in line shape and promise to be on hand when the jewellery is distributed. The two crack outside rinks, Trimble and Savage, of Calgary, had the misfortune to be drawn together in the first round of the Grand Challenge, Trimble winning by 9 to 8. Dickens and Fraser had a close contest in the McDougall, former getting away badly in a 3 and a 2 end, letting against him. Dunlop, of the Granites had the misfortune to lose by one shot in the Challenge, but romped in the McDougall. The draws are all made out of a hat and some unfortunate rinks played until 12 p.m. last evening and were over at 8 o'clock this morning ready for the fray. The sheets of ice are all numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 at the Granite Rink, 5, 6, 7 and 8 at the Capital City, and 8, 9 and 10 at the Strathcona.

Secretary John Dewar has arranged a bulletin service and the different draws will be posted each morning in the hotel rotundas. The officers of the bonspiel are:

THE GAME OF
THE SEASONDeacons and Y. M. C. A., the City League Leaders, will Play Tomorrow Night

A hockey match that will be worth going miles to see, will be pulled off tomorrow evening at the Thistle rink. The contestants, Deacons and Y. M. C. A., are fighting hard for the city league championship and this game will have an important bearing upon the final result. Y. M. C. A. has strengthened their defence by the addition of Heals and Bishopric. They were weak in the past at point and cover, but now will make the Deacons step to the limit. Their team will probably be: defence, Wright, Heals, Bishopric; forwards, Burns, Clark, Greenwood and Duncanson.

Deacons will have their trusty septette: Allan, Bill Banford, Aldous, Dea, McGannon, Gordon Banford and Gavevren. This game will take place at 9:15.

At 8 o'clock a keen contest will be provided in the J. H. Morris C. A. and Queen's avenue. Morris have a handy team and are not out of the race yet. While Queens avenue are not up to last year's standard, they are still able to put up a tough argument.

The admission to these two games is 25 cents, and the teams expect as large a crowd as turned out last Friday night to see Calgary and the Deacons.

FARE THEE WELL
COMBINATIONIt is Said That the Good Old Days of Combined Play in Hockey are Gone, to Appear no More

Alas! laments a Montreal paper, the day of the combination game in hockey seems to have gone past. The last remnant of it died with the Quebec team of last season. Every man in senior pro hockey these days seems to be becoming a whole team unto himself. The rushes down the ice with the puck cleverly passed from one to another right across the rink have gone by. The new defence game is responsible. Each succeeding year from the time that Rat Portage came east six years ago and showed us how it should be done, the combination idea has steadily been reducing. Even two-man combination only happens once in a while. Centre men like Ernie Russell and Marty Walsh score not because of the result of direct passes so often as by the fact that they work right onto the goals and take a chance of the rubber going that way."

If the Montreal scribe saw the Edmonton team play in Ottawa he must have seen some combination displayed by the forwards. At least, they were adhering to the combination play when they left this barge.

Continuous Pool Championship.

New York, Feb. 1.—Jerome Keogh gained a comfortable lead over Thos. Heaton last night in the first block of the match for the championship at continuous pool. At the end of the 25th frame the score stood: Keogh 209, Heaton 168. Keogh also took the high run, 37 against 35 for Heaton. The play will continue for two more nights for a total of 600 points.

There are five or six guineas, a couple of dozens, and two or three large, tuncful Harps.

There's a Pole that's all muscle, A Turk that's all hustle, A huge rough neck Frenchman, and several Camps.

There's a few heavy Greeks And a few other freaks, And they all have to eat thrice a day.

They are all hereabout And of this years no doubt, We can see the suckers that pay.

Row the Belgians, Holders of the World's Championship
—Poor Harvard

Boston, Jan. 30.—Boston oarsmen plan to have a grand rowing match here in August.

It is the idea of the projectors to secure the championship regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, with a special feature embodying a race between the Harvard varsity crew and the famous eight of the Royal Club Nautique de Gand, Belgium.

The Belgian crew is at the present time the holders of Grand Challenge Cup won at the famous Henley regatta, held in England, on July 7 and 8, last year. Since the plan was first proposed at a meeting of prominent local oarsmen its supporters have been assured of liberal support by influential patrons of the sport.

So far as the N. A. A. C. regatta is concerned, Boston has been assured of this event by President James Pilkington, if the local Association can finance the same.

The meeting of the delegates to the New England Association on February 2 will consider the project officially. The cost of the trip of the Belgians has been estimated at not over $5000.

It is said that Harvard students at Cambridge have expressed a willingness to contribute half the sum.

A NEW BOWL-ING RECORDRiverdale, a Class B Club of Toronto, Hang up a Five-Men
Total of 3093

On Friday last the Riverdale B. team of the Toronto Bowling League rolled the immense total of 3093, a mark that will stand for some time in Canadian bowling circles. Spoken of, some time ago as a weak team, they surely showed the cities a few things in their last time out. The total of 3093 is a Toronto record and a Canadian record as well for five men team. On looking up our dope book we find that the scores that have won the Canadian championships have been:

1907—Thompsons Coles..... 2853
1908—Dominion Steel Works .. 2756
1909—Samaritans 2820

Of course the Riverdale score was not rolled in a Canadian championship match, but nevertheless it will stand as a high-water mark for some time to come.

The itemized score of the Riverdale were:

	1	2	3	T
R. Spence	107	144	176	517
Murray	111	146	203	610
J. Logan	159	202	235	596
E. Vick	173	232	180	585
J. Booth	210	259	256	725
Totals	950	1033	1050	3033

A prominent ladies' tailor whose card we have mislaid informs us of the addition of a flounce on one end, a scoop, of ruffling on the other, and a score in the middle will make a 154 game schedule fit a 168 game schedule quite nicely.

Green, who was judge of play, at the recent St. Marys-Strathcona unpleasantness, is a native of Calgary, not of Strathcona, as we stated in Monday's Capital. But wherever he hails from, he made a very poor official on Saturday evening last.

Clinton, having been beaten 27 to 11 in three games cannot get a team for their return game to Goderich, which was to be the final of the double schedule, so Goderich are winners of their district, Group No. 9 Intermediate O. H. A. series.

Report of the Galt-Brantford game: Charlton hit Mercer, Marks smote Doherty and in the second half Doherty hit Marks so his leg was broken; Cap. McDonald cluffed Sanford and Cook was laid out by Weber, Chuck Tyner was mobbed as he left the ice, etc.

"THE MAN FROM HOME" AT THE EDMONTON

The "Man from Home" was presented last evening at the Edmonton opera house by one of the few really clever companies that have ever visited Edmonton. The play is a capital one by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, and no one can wonder at its record-breaking run of 342 performances in Chicago.

It deals with a familiar subject of international marriages and the contrast it draws between the simplicity of Kokonui, Indiana, and the artificiality of the fashionable resort at Soroteno is most striking. It is not to be wondered at that it took American audiences by storm, and that it makes a strong appeal to Canadian audiences as well, was clearly shown last night. It is seldom that a more thoroughly delighted crowd is seen in Edmonton. Mr. Henry Hall, as Daniel Voorhees Pike, the "man from home," gave an admirable portrayal. The third act, where he faces the conspirators and sets their plans at naught by producing from the inner chamber the escaped Russian convict Ivanoff, is one that

England, and through the Victorian era. In America the first society of printers was organized in New York in 1847, and is now known among the craft as "Big Six." It has the largest membership of any local union among the printers in any country. Speaking of the Union Printers' Home, it showed that the trades unionist was animated by a sincere desire to help his fellow-craftsmen, and was not, as some narrow-minded employers claim, but an organization merely for the increasing of wages. He said that the printers on account of the close confinement necessary in their calling were very susceptible to the so-called "white plague," and the Union Printers' Home was means they took to fight against this. Their efforts in this regard had been copied by governments. Their half-million-dollar institution at Colorado Springs was a credit to their organization, and a distinct advance in the trades union movement. He believed that the National Typographical Union was but in its infancy and the time would come "when it would embrace in its membership every man who handled a stick or dicked a keyboard from the Gulf of Mexico to Hudson's Bay."

Attorney-General Cross in replying to the toast of "Provincial Government and Legislation" said that when the Workmen's Compensation Act came into force a little over a year ago there were many dire prognostications of disaster, especially by mine owners. Those had not come to pass; indeed, in the case of coal it was less per ton today in Edmonton than at that time. The government had also passed an eight-hour law affecting work in coal mines. The owners in some cases had even gone so far as to say that this would cause the mines to close, but their forebodings had been entirely disproved by the working out of the law. He stated he believed no sweat-shops should be allowed to exist and it was the duty of the typographical union, as being in the van of the labor movement to assist other unions and so raise the scale of workmen of all crafts.

In "Great Newspapersmen" Hon. Duncan Marshall confessed he had not soon be forgotten. The company has absolutely no weak spots and each member down to those taking the most minor parts is an artist in his or her own way. Miss Forbes gave a very spirited and effective portrayal of the role of Miss Grogan Slapson. More thoroughly delightful work of its kind has been seldom seen anywhere than that of Miss Webb as the elderly Lady Creech. It recalls Mrs. John Drew at her best. Miss Moffatt as the Russian countess, Mr. Herrier as the Grand Duke in disguise, and Mr. Runnals as the Earl of Hawcastle were all more than satisfactory. Mr. Trevelick as the earl's son and heir, to whom bull pups were the serious things in life, could hardly have been improved upon, while Mr. Martin Ivanoff, with its less skillful hands could easily have reduced the play to the level of cheap melodrama, was a finished bit of acting.

The company plays again tonight and those who are not present will miss the most genuine treat we have had in many a long day.

subject which indeed was a very large one, and one he could hardly do justice to at the short time necessarily in his disposal. He said a great many of the greatest of them all had been "case hands," instancing Joseph Howe, Geo. Brown and Frank Oliver, in Nova Scotia, Ontario and Alberta respectively. These men were a great force for responsible government in the Dominion of Canada and left a large impress on the politics and places in their various fields of this broad Dominion.

"The Employing Printers" was responded to by Messrs. H. H. Hull, C. F. Hay, Geo. C. Scott, R. W. R. Armstrong and H. W. B. Douglas. Mr. J. A. Healy of No. 64 presented honorable withdrawal cards to Messrs. Hull and Hay.

In response to the toast: "The Fourth Estate" Mr. Jennings of the Journal said that he would view with favor any movement among the printers of Edmonton to form a club, as had been suggested by a previous speaker.

Mr. McGillicuddy of Calgary said that it gratified him to be present at such a gathering of "high brows." Looking for the southern city and said the employers there had just completed an amicable agreement with the employees. He paid a compliment to Mr. Adair for his very fine speech earlier in the evening. He was an old com. himself and said he set type with a candle stick in the "K" box. "And that's going back some," he said.

Mr. Hines of The Capital said he was only here three months, but had found himself among friends and comrades from the first. He also spoke in favor of a printers' club. He had been a member of such a club in the east and said the formation of one in Edmonton would meet with his hearty support.

During the evening music was discoursed by an orchestra, and songs were rendered by Messrs. Alf. McIsaac and S. F. Harris. The gathering broke up about two o'clock every one present voting the banquet a most enjoyable one, and voicing the sincere wish that it be made an annual affair.

free), and these young certificates will be the greater factor in deciding the winners of prizes.

The District Plan
Each district is assured a certain number of prizes—four in Districts 1, 2 and 4, and three in District 3. For the grand prizes—one $500 Nordheimer piano, Style F; the finest upright made by this company, and one "Boudoir" Nordheimer piano—candidates in all the districts compete. This plan is fair to all. If you aim high—and that is the kind of "aim" to take—and miss the grand prize, there are splendid district prizes to fall back on. By the way, if you wish to see the piano, kindly call at "Harmony Hall," and Mr. Seidling will be glad to show you the piano set aside for the Capital. The district prizes will be on exhibition soon.

In the matter of getting votes, you are not limited to your own district, or, in fact, to any territory whatever. A subscription is welcome from any part of Canada, and you are only limited by the extent of the field you can cover in getting paid-in-advance subscriptions for the Capital, Saturday News and Alberta Homestead.

Send in your nomination today. If you are interested and wish further information, and it is not convenient to call, phone 4-4, the Capital, and a representative will call. A letter of inquiry will receive prompt attention.

Scope of the Contest.

In order to equalize competition the territory has been divided into four districts, and the contestants in each district will compete among themselves for the district prizes. The contestants in the four districts compete for the grand prizes.

District No. 1 includes all of the city of Edmonton west of First street. District No. 2 includes all of the city of Edmonton east of First street. District No. 3 includes all of the city of Strathcona.

District No. 4 includes all the territory outside of Edmonton and Strathcona, including the towns of Wetaskiwin, Lacombe, Red Deer, Innisfail, Camrose, Stettin, Fort Saskatchewan, Vegreville, Lloydminster, Tofield, Wainwright, Viking, St. Albert, Stony Plain, etc.

STORK WORKING OVERTIME

WIFE POISONED

Washburn, Wis., Feb. 2.—Mrs. P. Behrman and family of five children were found poisoned at their home here this morning. The mother was dead when found, and one child has since died. The recovery of three of the other children is doubtful. The poisoning was reported by Behrman, who says that he also was poisoned. When neighbors first arrived the house was on fire and Behrman running about in his night clothes.

of the license practically rests with the council, as the council is not expected to grant any license without his report. J. Cormack appealed from the Chief's report, and asked to have Van Vleet cross-examined by the council. On Ald. Lundy refusing to hear anything without the presence of Chief Lancy, the matter was referred to the special committee for a report.

A communication was read from John McPherson, blacksmith at the power house, requesting the installation of labor saving machinery in the smith-shop at a cost of $145 to the city. The request was granted.

Thirty Days to Pay.
Three recommendations from the commissioners were granted, viz: the limiting of the payment of electric light rates to thirty days, the restricting of the use of hydrants to all but those securing special permission from the waterworks superintendent, and the placing of stand-pipes to facilitate the work of street sprinkling.

Fenders for the supplying of 300 cubic yards of screened gravel to the city were read but were refused on the recommendation of the city engineer that the gravel could be procured from the Huff Grading Co., where it could be had for the cost of hauling it away.

The public works committee reported that the city engineer in his trip down east made the inquiry into incinerator plants an important part of his mission. Meanwhile that the expenditure of $500 on the plant and an increase in the salaries of the assistant foreman of $10 per month be authorized. The committee also reported that the payment of $500 to Contractor Childs for bricking in the boiler at the power plant be granted as an investigation showed the sum to be not exorbitant.

The council rose after setting aside Monday night for a discussion on city bylaws before the council.

A BRUTAL MURDER

Charged in Connecticut Against a Young
Music Music Teacher

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 2.—A signed statement made by Bronislaw Kalkvinskas before he died at the hospital was put in evidence today at the trial of Sophie Kritchman, a young music teacher, who is charged with murdering Kalkvinskas. This statement was as follows: "On Friday, Sept. 17 Sophie Kritchman, at whose mother's home down she said: 'I will cover your face with a handkerchief and so and so who is coming.' A minute later she said: 'D— you, I am going to kill you.' Then she shot me five times. At 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon she came back and cut my throat. On Saturday she came and threw a stone at me, and then Joe Mitchell shot me in the head."

Persons Residing North of the 53th
Parallel Permitted to Trap Beaver.

The Department of Agriculture has received inquiries from various parts of the province asking if there is an open season for beaver. The Department therefore wishes to advise all parties residing south of the 53th parallel that there is no open season for beaver in that part of the province lying to the south of the said parallel, but owing to the scarcity of fur-bearing animals in the northern part of the province during the last two or three years, and owing to trapping and hunting being the principal occupation of the majority of the residents of that part of the province lying to the north of the 53th parallel (which crosses the province from east to west at about the southern boundary of Township 70), and in order to assist the natives in providing necessaries for their families by allowing them to trap beaver, the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council has declared an open season for the trapping of these animals (by the residents of that part of the province referred to), until the 10th day of March, 1916.

BANK FRAUDS ARE FREQUENT

Recurrence of Swindles in Britain has Set Many People Thinking

A London letter reads: "The suggestion that the other day, apropos of the fraud perpetrated at the Burlington Gardens branch of the Bank of England, that bank swindles are becoming so common nowadays that bank managers and clerks must be getting very careless, is not justified by any means. When one considers that over 400,000,000 cheques are drawn in this country annually, it says much for the vigilance of bank officials that frauds are not more frequent than they are. And it must be borne in mind that such is the system of checking in vogue, that, even should a fraud may be perpetrated, the swindler cannot have many hours start before it is discovered.

We have a striking illustration of this fact in the Burlington Gardens case, when some of the bank notes paid to the swindler, when he cashed the fraudulent cheque for £1,500, were discovered within 24 hours. In this case the swindler secured the handbook of another customer and obtained the money by forging his handwriting. This recalls the attempt made in June last by an imitator of "D. S. Windell's" methods, who defrauded Parr's bank to the extent of £1,600 by means of a forged draft, which not only bore all the secret code letters and numbers, but was forged with such skill that not the slightest suspicion was aroused.

Those who ought to know say that every cheque issued, unless properly safeguarded, is capable of being fraudulently manipulated. By what is known in bank circles as "greening" a cheque originally drawn for a few pounds can quickly be made into one of several hundreds. Experts have at their command hundreds of penning combinations. The addition of "2" to "eight" is one known, or at any rate should be known, to every writer of cheques, and it is generally avoided by joining the "2" to the "p" in pounds, thus allowing no room for additions. Yet, even though this simple example of penning is so well known, many business men who are aware that this can be done, write their cheques in such a fashion that there is more than enough room to add several letters after the "2."

Clever tricksters employ acids and chemicals to restore the tint of a cheque which may have been damaged during the process of altering the amount, and they have even been known, when the amount has been stamped, with a perforating stamping machine, through the cheque, to replace the cuttings and recut a larger amount.

One of the most amazing bank swindles of modern times was carried out by the aid of chemicals. A man named Bevan deposited £300 with a certain London bank in exchange for a letter of credit for that amount. A few days later he presented the letter at a Swiss bank, drew $250, and on the following day the balance. The letter was endorsed with these two sums, and was also defaced and rendered worthless.

So the bank concluded. Bevan knew better; for, with the help of chemicals, he restored the letter to its original condition, presenting it to banks at Cologne, Liege, Brussels, and Paris, and in various sums again drew his $300. Once more he skillfully removed the endorsements, and raised another £300 on the letter, and this process he repeated all over the continent until that letter of credit had yielded the handsome return of £300—ten times its value.

It was only by chance that a London bank was saved from serious loss a short time ago. A cheque for a large amount, abstracted from a letter-box, was presented. It had been crossed, but so faintly that the thief, by a method of erasure, left only the slightest trace behind. It so happened, however, that the cashier was doubtful whether their client was good for the amount appearing on the face of the cheque, and went to one of the desks in the back part of the office to refer to the ledger.

The thief thought he had been detected, and without waiting for a moment, vanished. Of course, this led to a closer scrutiny of the cheque and traces of the lines where it had been crossed, were discovered. When one discovers that swindlers are able to carry on such cunning and clever methods, it is surprising that banks are beaten at times in their conflict with fraudulent people.

Perhaps the most audacious attempt at bank fraud ever made was that which, fortunately for the banks concerned, was unsuccessfully tried in July last. The object was to defraud three leading city banks of sums amounting in all to £85,000. One day each of the three banks in question received cables in cipher, properly authenticated, in identical terms, from a banking institution in South America, directing each to pay Scipio de Paula Souza, staying at a Bloomsbury hotel, the sum of £25,000 and to charge their correspondents with the amount. The individual in question duly presented himself at each of the three banks in succession to draw the money.

Only the vigilance of the banks, who although the advice was in order, took upon themselves to defer payment pending a reply from South America to their cable asking for further confirmation, prevented the respective amounts being paid over. The fraud, thus being frustrated, was traced to the fact that the cables received from South America it appeared that the telegraphic instructions as to payment were sent with the aid of an accomplice formerly in the employ of the South American bank in question, and were not genuine.

It will generally be found that in these great bank frauds the perpetrators were assisted, directly or indirectly, by a former employee of the bank, or someone who has acquired an intimate knowledge of the inside of the bank. "D. S. Windell" could not have carried out his fraud had he not been assisted by a clerk who had inside information of the bank's secrets. In the case of the frauds on the Bank of Liverpool, was a clerk named Goudie, who had been in the bank's service for seven years, who secured the £170,000.

EARL CARRINGTON

Something About the Latest to be Suggested as Our Governor-General

London, Feb. 1.—A reconstruction of the Liberal ministry is the necessary sequel of the elections. Earl Carrington retires from the presidency of the board of agriculture, thus bringing a portfolio back from the House of Lords to the Commons and inaugurating the process of re-establishing the ministry. It is expected that Earl Carrington is to be Earl Grey's successor at Ottawa and it is stated on high authority that he has expressed his willingness to go to Canada.

Earl Crewe, the present ministerial leader of the Liberals, is expected to retire. He probably will succeed Earl Linto in India and his place as Colonial Secretary may fall to Colonel Seely, now under-secretary, who was unhorsed in the elections, though a new seat will easily be found for him by creating peers among some of the wealthy elected Radicals, though it is thought unbecoming for democratic ministers to keep in the hereditary chamber cabinet-spoken for important departments like the colonial and agricultural offices. An official associate of Lord Carrington gives me the following estimate: "Canada may be congratulated. If you searched the leaders on both sides of British politics you would not find a man more likely to suit Canada better. He is 60 years old, yet sprightly in mind and body. He is an intimate of the King and hereditary lord great chamberlain of England, yet the most acceptable president the National Liberal Club ever had. He is the owner of 30,000 acres, yet no one knows better how to make the smallest farmer his friend than the first minister of agriculture. He used to hold weekly at home welcome in London, where a warm welcome was given to every visiting farmer whenever his politics. He really loves the countryman. He is a good speaker, yet precise and the most businesslike manager of a club or political meeting I ever knew; perhaps he is rather quick-tempered and a little bit of a snob when unconcerned, but is quick in perception and has plenty of tact and bonhomie. You remember what friends he made with the visiting colonial premiers in 1907. Moreover he was governor of New South Wales and sat some years in the House of Commons. I sincerely hope Mr. Asquith will select him for Canada as he will make one of your best governor-generals, incomparably better than others whose names have been suggested."

ARMY CITADEL FOR EDMONTON

Commissioner Coombs of the Salvation
Army now Negotiating for a Suitable Site in the Heart of the City

The Capital was shown a telegram this morning from Commissioner Coombs, head of the Salvation Army for Canada, to Mr. Travis Horke, chief of the city, in which the Commissioner advises Mr. Barker that he is going to the Army headquarters in London, Eng., and while there wishes to make arrangements for the purchase of a block of land in Edmonton. Questioned as to the purpose of the telegram, Mr. Barker said that the Salvation Army will shortly close for the purchase of a large block in the heart of the city and that a Salvation Army Citadel will be built thereon probably during the coming summer.

"It is the intention," said Mr. Barker, "to make Edmonton the headquarters for the Army operations in northern Alberta."

In Connection With Suit of a Brewer
Who Wished to Become a Baronet

London, Feb. 1.—Much mystery is thrown about a suit, Wyatt vs. the Countess of Warwick, which has been called in the King's Bench court over which the Lord Chief Justice presides, and has been postponed.

Mr. Wyatt is a very wealthy brewer with social aspirations. The story goes that about a year ago he was told by a prominent member of the principal Tory Club, the Carlton, that if he wished to be made a baronet he would attain this ambition by paying $100,000.

Mr. Wyatt satisfied himself that the person making the proposition could make good, and he agreed to pay $100,000, with the understanding that the baronetcy would be given him. Some time before the list was to appear Mr. Wyatt was informed by the person who had approached him originally that the must pay $600,000 to principals in the negotiations, who, it is said, he named as the Countess of Warwick and a high official of Buckingham Palace.

Mr. Wyatt objected to paying such a large sum until the baronetcy was "delivered," but his objections were overcome and he paid. But when the list of birthday honours was published, his name was not on it. Naturally Mr. Wyatt was indignant, and demanded his $600,000. He was persuaded that the covered title would be given him when the next list of honours would appear; that it was withheld only because certain necessary formalities had to be gone through with.

Becoming suspicious, he made inquiries, and learned that his name had not even been suggested to the King. So he brought suit to recover his $600,000.

A BRIEF MARRIED LIFE

Death of Yale Professor who Married Mrs. T. M. Harris, a Wealthy Toronto Lady

New York, Feb. 1.—Prof. Edwards V. Raynolds, of the Yale University Law School, died of pneumonia at the Hotel Belmont on Thursday.

Prof. Raynolds was married in Toronto a week ago to Mrs. T. M. Harris, of that city. He came to this city with his bride on Saturday, and was taken ill. His bride and a daughter by a former wife were with him at the time of his death.

Prof. Raynolds was connected with the Yale Law School for many years. During the Spanish-American War he accepted a commission in charge of a monitor. The remains are to be taken to New Haven, Conn., and the funeral will be held there.

Prof. Raynolds was 51 years old, and was graduated from Sheffield Scientific School in 1889. The marriage of Mrs. Harris and Prof. Raynolds took place in Toronto last Thursday at the residence of the bride, on St. George's street, Mrs. Harris' father, Rev. Dr. Stewart, officiating.

It had been the intention of the newly married couple to make a tour of Egypt on their honeymoon.

Mr. Howard Harris and Mr. Shenton left for New York yesterday afternoon.

COST OF LIVING IN THE STATES

Most Expensive Country in the World
Says the Secretary of Agriculture

"It costs more to get the common necessities of life in the United States today than in any other country in the world."

This startling statement was made last week by James Wilson, U. S. secretary of agriculture, in an address delivered before the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia. Secretary Wilson discussed "The Present Food Crisis" in a way that was original and forceful.

The secretary said he believed the American people to be suffering at present not so much from the high cost of living as from the cost of high living, his statement being:

"It has been said that an American is the best fed, best clothed, best educated, and best housed man upon earth. We shall have to add now that he is the most expensively fed."

Thinks Tariff Is Blameless. "Some persons," he continued, "tell us that if we repeal the present tariff law to let in foreign products free of duty the present difficulty will cease. I do not believe it. Eggs are 35 cents a dozen in Canadian cities and 50 cents a dozen in some American cities. The duty is 3 cents a dozen. What difference would it make whether you took off that 3 cents or not?"

Secretary Wilson pointed out that the fundamental difficulty was that the people are leaving the farm land to such an extent that there are not enough remaining to produce the food of the increasing population. The boys and girls of the farm, he asserted, are being lured away to the cities, to the factories, and to the mines, and to too great an extent the agricultural resources of the country are being neglected.

He said he was convinced that the combination of retailers, wholesalers, and the like are responsible in great measure for the keeping up of prices, and that same influence would be sufficient to control the prices of products brought from other countries, even if the tariff were removed.

Education of Farmer Overlooked: Secretary Wilson spoke of manufacturers as follows:

"The record made by the manufacturers of the United States is a good one. Conditions have been favorable. A highly intelligent people, abundance of raw material, well developed systems of transportation, and a home market unexcelled have furnished facilities for the application of capital, skill, and labor to the production of manufactured products.

"The education of the farmer, however, has been overlooked. Manufacturing industries have built up cities, towns, and villages, but the growth of knowledge of the soil, the plant and the animal has not been fostered. The young farmer has been educated away from the farm and from the production of food for the people. The school, the college, and the university which admirably prepare young men and women for their life work in all other directions, have forgotten the farmer.

In discussing further the lure from the farm to the cities, the secretary continued:

"It is up to you, gentlemen of the Manufacturers club, to look into these things. Go down to the foundations and enquire. If you find my statement to be correct, that the people are leaving the farms to such an extent that there are not enough left to produce the food of our growing population, take steps to have the young farmer taught regarding his life work."

Advices Opening of State Farms: "You should be giving instructions to 10,000 young men and women along these lines. In the winter time they might be getting theoretical knowledge, and be introduced to applied science. In the summer time they should go into the fields. If you do not have acres enough, Pennsylvania has plenty of acres. Get a farm big enough to educate the people who are to grow our food in the future that can be sold to the people at reasonable prices. If it is necessary to get 5,000 acre farm, get it."

The secretary closed his plea for the agricultural education of the young with the declaration that the worst farming is being done east of the Allegheny mountains.

IN TWO YEARS

In the course of an interview with the Regina Standard, Hon W. H. Cushing said that good progress is being made with the new Parliament buildings in Alberta. It was hoped to have them completed inside of two years. The Alberta Parliament buildings differ largely from those of Saskatchewan in that they are constructed with a frame of steel, while the Regina buildings have a frame of reinforced concrete. His opinion is that the steel construction is the better of the two. As a consequence of having adopted steel construction they found it necessary to go very deep for footings. A sub-basement was put in, and then a basement which is quite well above the ground. Construction is necessarily slower in Edmonton than in Regina owing to the difference in the class of construction.

When asked as to the truth of the rumor that he would shortly leave the cabinet, Mr. Cushing said: "I have heard nothing beyond what has appeared in the papers. I have not yet any intimation that I am not wanted in the cabinet." Further than that he would not discuss political matters for publication.

Judge Taylor gave out his decision in the small debt case McGibbon vs. Campbell last evening. Dr. McGibbon sued for $42 for medical services rendered in connection with an injury Walter Campbell received in a hockey match last winter. Campbell claimed that the hockey club would settle the bill, but nothing being done, Dr. McGibbon instituted the action. Plaintiff also garnished a sum of money that was coming to defendant from another source. Campbell paid into court $5, which he said was a fair sum for the professional services rendered. Judge Taylor gave judgment for the plaintiff for $5, the amount paid into court, with costs. Costs for the defendant from that time were ordered.

Harold Deaton, centre forward of the Edmonton Hockey team, has returned from Ottawa and was at his place of business in the Supreme Court office this morning. Ottawa have gathered together a well-balanced team, which comes very near being the best team that ever stepped on the ice. Deaton says that the first half of the game was said by Ottawa critics to have been the fastest hockey ever seen in that city. Ross and Field came back with Deet. THE REFORM TICKET WON

Dr. Guerin and Colleagues Elected by Handsome Majorities in Montreal

Montreal, Feb. 2.—Yesterday the whole slate of the citizens' committee was elected by large majorities, and not one of the famous 23 adherents of the old regime conceived by Judge Cannon, in his investigation of civic administration, has survived the battle.

Dr. Guerin, the reform candidate for mayor, was swept in over Senator Casgrain. This result is regarded the more satisfactory as Senator Casgrain's campaign was a purely racial one, and he appealed to the French-Canadian electorate purely on the ground that he was one of their race.

The four citizens' candidates for the board of control head the list of eighteen candidates, who ran for the four seats, by large majorities. They are Messrs. Wanklyn, Lachapelle, Dupuis and Ainey.

The latter, the Labor candidate, received a splendid majority in all parts of the city. One of the features of the returns is the fact that Dr. Guerin led in the east end of the city as well as in the English wards, which proves that the determined efforts to stampede the French-Canadian electors in favor of Senator Casgrain were disregarded by the best elements of the French-Canadian population.

Some well-known members of the last council, particularly those members whose spectacular disregard of the people's interests brought them into unsatisfactory repute, have been snowed under in the wave of reform. Giroux, who was practically the leader of the high tender clique, and Proulx, chairman of the police committee, were both defeated by the reform nominees for their respective wards, while Ald. Mederic Martin, another of the 23, went under.

Ald. Gallery, who has held a seat for ten years, lost his deposit in St. Anne.

Mayor Payette, who ran for the board of control, was badly beaten.

EDMONTONIANS IN TORONTO

Toronto, Feb. 2.—After a trip including visits to Winnipeg, Montreal, New York and Boston, Mayor Lee, of Edmonton and Mr. W. Garlepy, member of the Edmonton city council, forming a commission of two to inquire into the relations existing between the city engineer and heads of different municipal departments, various kinds of pavement used, and their respective merits, have arrived in Toronto and have been prosecuting investigation along same lines.

THE RETURN OF THE SAN FRANCISCANS

The many friends and admirers of the San Francisco Opera Company will be pleased beyond measure with the improvements made in the past few weeks. First and foremost is the return of J. Russell Powell, without a question of a doubt the most popular singer that ever trod the boards in this section of the country. Powell's glorious voice, personality, acting ability, and genial disposition has made him friends by the thousands. To his fellow professionals "Russ" is one of the best of good fellows and hundreds have laughed themselves into well-nigh hysterics at the world of funny stories he tells. Virginia Amesworth is a new prima donna who comes from the East with splendid recommendations. Edmonton will pass judgment on her Thursday as she makes her Canadian debut in this city. The greatest improvement will be noted in the chorus, and Manager Healy is continuing to add to the female section pretty and talented girls. Bullala Young, one of the best, if not the best, operatic sopranos that ever graced the boards in this city; James Stevens, the splendid baritone; Alexander Dale, clever character comedian; Any Leicoster, the pleasing comedienne; Dan Young, comedian; Albert Bert, comedian, and seventeen others will endeavor to give Edmonton the very best entertainment ever offered in this city at the scale of prices charged.
